

What is That Colour You Wear?

An Important Message For Every Member & Supporter of the Apprentice Boys of Derry

The Gospel Message & The Siege of Londonderry.

In the same way that the Protestants of Londonderry were under siege by James and his army - so too, your soul is under siege by Satan and sin.

In the same way that James and his army intended to afflict the Protestants of Londonderry with 'physical death' - so too, Satan and sin intend to afflict your soul with 'spiritual death' (i.e. an eternity of torment in Hell).

In the same way that the Protestants of Londonderry trusted in King William and his fleet to be their 'physical saviour' from James and his army - so too, you must trust in the Lord Jesus Christ as your 'spiritual Saviour' from Satan, sin and an eternity in Hell.

In the same way that the Protestants of Londonderry had to sacrifice their own 'human blood' in order to be saved from James and his army - so too, Jesus had to sacrifice His own 'divine blood' in order to save you from going to Hell when you die.

In the same way that the Protestants of Londonderry had to accept the favour (i.e. grace) of King William in order to be saved from James and his army - so too, you must receive the Lord Jesus Christ in order to be saved from going to Hell when you die. When you do that - you receive God's favour (i.e. grace) and God's gift (i.e. Jesus) - which means that you are saved, you are a Christian, you are adopted into God's family, you are His child and you are one of His people.

The Gospel Message & Your Regalia.

In the immediate sense, your crimson collarette (due to its colour) serves as a reminder of the blood that was shed in defence of Londonderry during the Siege.

In addition to that however, let it also (due to its colour) remind you of the blood that the Lord Jesus Christ shed at Calvary in order to take away your sins so that you could go to Heaven when you die.

Whilst it is a wonderful thing, and a holy and sacred honour, to wear the crimson collarette of the Apprentice Boys movement - that is not enough to get you into Heaven. You need to have your sins taken away by being covered and washed in the crimson blood of the Lord Jesus Christ (1 John 1:9).

You need to be saved. You need to take that step today and receive the Lord Jesus Christ as your personal (and only) Saviour. If you say yes to Him, then He will say yes to you.

You Need to Know This.

God is holy, but we're not. If that is all there was to it, He could solve it all very easily indeed and just send us all to Hell.

Fortunately for us however, God is loving as well as holy.

He loves each and every one of us - despite the fact that are all sinners.

He wants us to go to Heaven - therefore He sent Jesus to take away all of our sins.

Do you want this? It can be yours if you want it.
